PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

One cannot survey the history and progress of SSC without sharing generously in the pride and satisfaction felt by all students, and by all members of the faculty and staff.

Progress is self-evident—a campus unsurpassed for its beauty and resources; a fine group of students, at least equal in ability to the average of liberal arts colleges in the United States; a modern and functional program of instruction; a varied and expanding program of activities; a thoroughly competent faculty and statt; a host of successful alumni; and continue growth of our students as reflected in the level of maturity and in the soundness of judgment with which they conduct day-to-day activities on this campus.

It is a fine privilege to work together in such a challenging enterprise. I am sure we appreciate very much the splendid efforts of those who undertake so successfully each year to present a yearbook which genuinely reflects the fine spirit and achievements of SSC.

Dr. Guy A. West

Sudden remembrance of moments, Thrown into brilliant perspective, Hundreds of bright-colored instants, Snapshots in a living album.

September, fall registration; Left-over heat from the summer.

Price-tags on books that are print-fresh, Leisure's end—first day of class.

The air sharpens, rallies and football, Cold stars shine down on the field.

Leaves fall, the fog off the river Envelops the morning-gray campus.

Icy December arrival Smoky-warm cafeteria.

Coffee and chatter, then Christmas, Re-uniting in a New Year.

Mid-Semester slump and dead week, Finals on a rain-swept campus.

Tension, blue books, whispered study, Relief of the semester break.

Gail Albertson Marilyn Alessi

The fresh start of early springtime, Wool to cotton, petticoats flash.

New-green lawn dotted with students, Eyes wander from blackboard to sky.

School picnic, the round of finals, Realization of year's end.

Warm-soft June, end of the cycle, Anticipation of Summer A gay quatrain of memories, Super-imposed on a quiet sky.

Drawn to a close, not forgotten, Focused on this day of farewell.

Shining panorama of years Flashed across a June-quiet sky, Before rows of robe-clad students During the valedictory.

ACTIVITIES

BRUCE PORTER

In the performance of his many duties, Bruce has made himself a familiar, friendly part of the entire campus. From the office of the president has come a steady stream of advice, ideas, and help for every activity and function of the college during the past year. No basketball game was complete without Bruce and his umbrella, and hardly any other event was without at least a token appearance and a friendly smile for everyone. Leadership is a rare and valuable virtue. . . .

Open to all students, regardless of major, an SSC representative group to the West Coast United Nations Contest is chosen annually by a student-faculty committee, which individually interviews each of the many applicants. For the 1958 Model U.N., held at the University of Washington, the Hornet Team was thoroughly trained in the problems and history of Belgium, receiving two units credit for their efforts. To participate is to learn. . . .

MODEL UN

DEBATE TEAM

Taking on a rather impressive schedule, the SSC Forensic Squad not only attended several tournaments around the State, such as the Tyro Tournament at Stockton, NCFA Spring Meet at San Mateo, Stanford Invitational Cross-Examination Debate Tournament, and the Southern California Forensic Tournament at Redlands U., but entertained two of their own, The Northern California Forensic Association Fall Tournament, and for high schools, the Valley Forensic League Tournament. The well-rounded Hornet team took part in varied events, including Impromptu Speaking, Persuasive Speaking, Interpretive Reading, Discussion, Debate, and Explanatory Speaking.

RALLY COMMITTEE

The biggest publicity campaigns of 1957-58 were carried on by the rally committee. The annual Rooter's Train, which traveled to the Chico football game, was filled to a boisterous capacity only after wholesale psychological beating over the heads of reluctant students. Rallies, publicity and general firing up of the banked fires of student enthusiasm . . . tough problems . . . a job well done.

HOMECOMING

"Herky's Holiday" was the theme chosen for this years homecoming festivities. The 1957 Homecoming has been named the largest Homecoming in SSC's history. "Herky's Holiday" got under way with the bonfire rally. The rally bolstered the spirit of the rooting section for the football game with the University of Nevada. The bonfire, a three tiered twenty-five foot can of flammable materials was lit by Herky the Hornet. The highlight of the rally was the crowning of the 1957 Homecoming Queen, Jeanine Cook, sponsored by Xi Theta Chi Fraternity. Following the bonfire rally, the alumni presented the homecoming variety show, "Homer Sapien." The theme of the show centered around a fanciful system of push button lecturing. Homer Sapien tuned out his professor's lectures in favor of the variety acts of the show.

The big Homecoming Parade traveled from SSC, through downtown Sacramento, and down the main streets of North Sacramento to the game at Grant Stadium, its most ambitious route in history. Several elaborate floats and many decorated cars, entered by the various student organizations and fraternities, complimented the marching units, putting on a really big show for the area residents. Upon reaching their destination, the paraders and other rooters were treated to a rousing 7-0 victory over the Nevada Wolfpack by the Hornet footballers. The annual Alumni Homecoming Dinner, after the game in the luxurious Tuesday Clubhouse, gave all the Alums a chance to renew old friendships and consume some good food and drink at the same time.

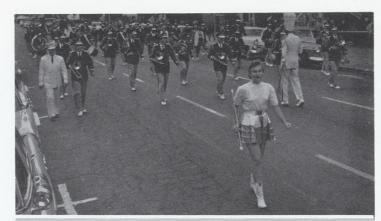

Alpha Pi Delta's float won the Sweepstake Award and the most appropriate award in Division I.

The 1958 World University Service fund drive, under the able leadership of chairman Nancy Marshall, raised a record $1,170 on the SSC campus. This money, the most ever received for any cause at the college, went to the aid of students in countries around the world. Almost all the clubs and organizations on campus, headed by Rally Committee, Silver Key and the Sophomore Class, made contributions raised through shoe shine stands, fruit vendors, panhandlers, and other operations. 1958 has set a mark to shoot for....

REGISTRATION

Several new ideas, designed to facilitate speed and ease of registration and to eliminate confusion, were incorporated into the program this year. They included re-arrangement of class card stations and pre-registration of Math and Science majors in their respective fields. For most classes, however, it was the same story of first come, first served. . . .

The Fun Fair is a combination of SSC's traditional Club Fair and Fun Night. The new and returning students "get to know each other while they get to know their clubs", at a festive, carnival-like party held at the beginning of the semester, playing games and learning first hand about the opportunities offered by the various campus organizations.

At the beginning of each semester, the Inter-fraternity Council sponsors the rushing activities, highlighted by the I F C Rush Party, and parties held by the individual fraternities. When the choices have been made, the rushees are put to work on projects serving the campus, a feature of "Help Week." The interfraternity raft race, now an annual affair, competition in the intramural sports, and the first annual all-fraternity dance, headlined the 1958 fraternity schedule.

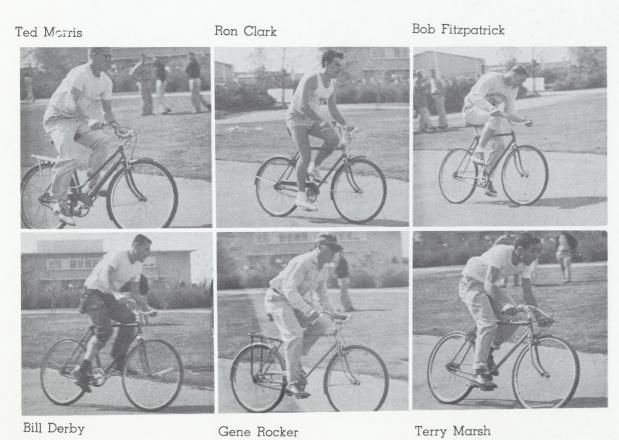

There must be something interesting going on!

SOPHOMORE BIKE RACE

One of the most novel new ideas to appear at SSC in recent years was brought forth by the Sophs in the form of the Grand Prix Bicycle Race. Run on an approximately 5 mile course, consisting of 20 laps around the campus sidewalks, the race attracted entries from almost all the campus clubs, fraternities and organizations, as well as a large enthusiastic crowd of rooters. The innovations of today are the traditions of tomorrow.

RALLIES

The SSC Committee for producing entertaining and educational rallies came up with several rallies that were both entertaining and educational. Chairman Ernie Leavitt and Larry Felion turned in outstanding jobs, keeping the student body inspired with fresh, new approaches to bolstering school spirit.

SOPHOMORE SISTERS

Each year a group of Sophomore women are chosen to help out-of-town Freshmen women become acquainted with college traditions and policies. Qualifications for these girls include recommendations from two club sponsors, 2.25 grade point and Sophomore standing. Under the direction of Dr. Roberta Christi these women plan a picnic and coke party, helped the Freshmen register, and generally make them feel at home.

The major fall semester presentation of the drama department was a re-run, by popular demand, of the Summer production, with essentially the same cast. The production headlined George Tomajon as Sakini, William Sibley as Captain Fisby, and Hope Omachi as Lotus Blossom; and also featured a beautiful teahouse created by Larry Schumate. "Teahouse" enjoyed a successful run to packed houses.

"FINIAN'S RAINBOW"

SSC's first ever "musical" was more than merely a smash hit; it set a precedent for productions of the future, and a standard of quality for them to attempt to reach. The leads taken by Delores Sharp, Sherwood Silva, Mike Linn, and Don Longhurst as the leprechaun, were backed with enthusiasm by the chorus and lesser parts. The typically wonderful sets of Larry Shumate and his crew, and the production and direction of Dr. Gerald Larson put the crowning polish on another big "First" by the SSC Drama Department.

OF A SALESMAN"

This gripping tragedy by Arthur Miller is a real challenge to any production group, and the SSC presentation was a real triumph. Under the always able direction of Dr. Carl Thomas, the cast, lead by Phillip Nesbitt, Marsha Shipman, Bob Smart, and Dick Gregory, turned in a truly memorable and stirring performance.

"THE SOLID GOLD CADILLAC"

SSC's entry into competition for a tour of European military installation played a hilarious five night run in the Little Theater. Under the direction of Dr. Carl Thomas, the Howard Teichmann-George S. Kaufman comedy featured Miriam Dessem and Frank Wilbur, with an excellent supporting cast and movable sets designed by Warren Hovious.

MISS CALIFORNIA

LORNA ANDERSON

Probably Sacramento State's most illustrious student to date, Lorna Anderson, has, through her beauty, charm, and talent, gained national prominence while endearing herself to thousands of people, not only in the Sacramento area, but throughout the State and Nation. A nineteen year old blond Sophomore, Lorna came to SSC from Sacramento High School, bearing the titles of Miss Sacramento County and Maid of California. In the spring of 1957, she began her rise to fame by carrying the banner of SSC into the Miss Sacramento Pageant. Following her local triumph, she became Miss California, and, in a closely contested, nationally televised program, was adjudged 3rd runner-up to Miss America of 1957. Orchids to Lorna, always a Queen to the Hornets of SSC....

HOMECOMING QUEEN

JEANIENE COOK

With its own off-campus club headquarters, in the Newman Center across from the main entrance to the college, this SSC organization of Catholic students is one of the most centralized and largest of the clubs at Sacramento State. Along with social get-togethers, such as pizza parties and dances, the members hold discussions, invite speakers and join in activities which enable them to advance the combination of religious principles and education.

BASEBALL

The Hornets, under Coach Hal Wolf, are always the team to beat in the Far Western Conference, having won four straight titles during his tenure. This year's team, rebuilding after losing a few regulars from the 1957 Champions, was led by Captain John Mazzei and Shortstop Dick Nunes, veterans, and newcomer Larry Kelley in the outfield, was no exception. Hustle...talent...desire...a top-rated team.

TRACK

Jack Sanchez

The first dual meet victory in SSC history was produced by this year's squad, and their all around strength was the best we've ever fielded. Led by distance stars Neil McGirr, who broke the SSC two-mile record in the first meet of the year, Urban Gasperi and Ernie Neveu, from the championship cross-country team, and Gene Masterson, veteran multiple event star, the Hornet trackmen enjoyed their best season ever.

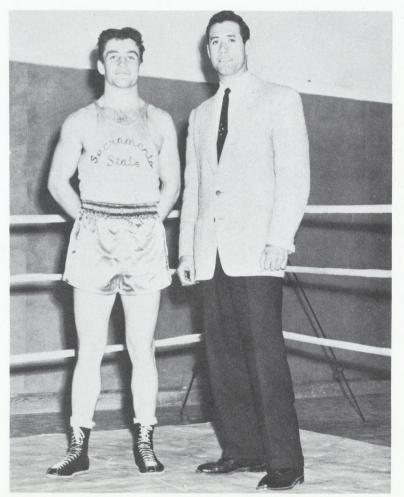

Front row, left to right: Don Horder, Jerry Morgan, John Hallifax, Neil McGuirr, Doug Grant, Tony Comporato, Glen Winter. Middle row: Ed Keefer, Jon Beaver, Dave Zenor, Jack Sanchez, Jack Nevarov, Jim Wren. Back row: Harvey Roloff, head coach; Harvey Wade, Dean Johnson, Pat Jones, Ernie Neveu, Lou Barba, Bob Bonetti.

This year SSC Hornets placed two champions in the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Boxing Tournament held in Reno. Jim Flood captured the 165 pound crown and Terry Smith the 156 pound. The Tournament's outstanding boxer award went to Terry Smith. Along with the Cal Aggies, the SSC Hornets hosted the twenty-first N.C.A.A. Tournament. Jim Flood, after capturing the 156 pound championship in 1957, returned this year to bring home the 165 crown honor.

GOLF

Led by No. One Boy, Bob Tait, SSC's golfers under Coach Aubrey Bates, were compiled a successful record against a tough schedule. With such men as Thor Holm, James Stuart, Jim Moore, Don Ericson, Lincoln Pike, Allen McKellips, and John Marti playing steadily, good depth was a strength all year.

The 1958 Tennis Team, defending champs in the Far Western Conference, gave Coach Jack Jossi a problem of rebuilding. Returning lettermen Tony Damiani, Ken Nicolai, and Bob Parks, backed by newcomers Hal Roach, Jerry Tollefeson, Al Kohn and Bob Nielson, combined to bring the Hornets another successful season.

THE VERY END

Blood shot eyes, headaches, and nervousness are now at an end. The very end, the book is out! A year full of struggles was I hope in some degree successful. To give credit to all who helped iron out these struggles and to those who shared the headaches is difficult, but special mention is deserved by Polly Grigg, who tackled the work of business manager and did an outstanding job; John Wells, who not only did the art and layout work but spent many hours thinking of ideas to make the book an attractive one; Bobbie Hoover, who not only took care of the sales department but also assisted me in last minute work; Ranae Blake, who nally completed the activity section and not only kept peace with those whose feelings were hurt, but was also the "faithful editor cheer upper"; George Calder, who made sure to check his box every day and wrote the entire copy for the book; Floyd Fenocchio, who did a most successful job with the sport section; and to those who deserve the most credit, the photographers, Doug Desouza, Bill Rath, Harry Axhelm, Harry Smetzer. Acknowledgments are due to those who helped make the book possible: Sacramento Composition Typesetters, Dome Engraving, Peninsula Lithographers, Al Yelvington from Best Western Yearbook Company. To these and to the staff members I say THANK YOU.
